Today, October 25, 2016, the Agricultural Academy will celebrate the holiday of agricultural science "The Gifts of Nature", which is a professional holiday for those working in the field of agricultural science.

An official ceremony will be held to present diplomas for honorary awards, certificates for the appointment to the academic positions of professor and associate professor, and certificates for approved scientific products.

Guests will also be able to enjoy a richly arranged exhibition "The Gifts of Nature" featuring the achievements of the institutes and experimental stations of the Agricultural Academy.

The event will take place from 11:00 a.m. in the building of the Central Administration of the Agricultural Academy at 30 "Suhodolska" Str., Sofia.
