This was the slogan marking the remarkable anniversary of Summit Agro's launch in our country. The celebration, which gathered the elite of agribusiness and agricultural science, took place at the prestigious capital hotel "Kempinski-Zografski". In his welcoming address to the partner audience, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Miroslav Tityanov, General Manager of Summit Agro Bulgaria, a subsidiary of Sumi Agro Europe, part of the Japanese Sumitomo Corporation, noted: "Today we can proudly state that our small but modern, specialized company has established itself on the Bulgarian market as a company with traditions, authority, integrity, and has managed to grow with your support. We continuously strive to provide innovative solutions, an increasingly rich product portfolio, easier access to them, and of course - competitive prices. We guarantee that over the next two years we will at least double the number of plant protection products we offer."
